

Developing Equality Impact Assessments into meaningful and sustainable practice

Learning Outcomes

By the end of the course participants will be able to:

- Be confident on the steps they need to take to establish effective systems suited to their area of work
- Decide which methods of consultation, engagement and involvement will best meet their organisation's needs
- Have developed a plan on how they will engage different communities

Suitable for:

- Those who have already carried out Equality Impact Assessments or who have participated in Equality Impact Assessments training
- Pacesetters pilot sites
- Those Managing LINKs

AND would like to develop systems that will ensure the ongoing engagement with local communities, particularly those not already engaged with existing systems

Consultancy to support training:

- Mapping local communities particularly those not previously identified or worked with
- Support in implementing consultation, engagement and involvement mechanisms
- Organising and running focus groups
- Supporting organisations to implement the findings of any consultations carried
- Supporting organisations in implementing feedback mechanisms
- Supporting activists and individuals carrying out mystery shopper exercises